Blooming Rosés

1. Mateus Dry Rosé Vintage 2019

Rosé is experiencing a Renaissance... with an influx of brands, presence in pop culture and general popularity amongst a wider set of drinkers. Mateus has 75 years of success and is building on its popularity with a Mateus Dry Rosé, an expressive vintage dry wine with hints of red fruit, some crispness and a lovely balance between red and white heaviness in flavour. Only the best grapes destined for Mateus Original are used for Mateus Dry. Well done to Mateus on this release which will see its popularity continue for years to come.

$14.99 Single Normally $17.99

2. De Bortoli Rose Rosé & Blue Gris

De Bortoli's pale & dry Rosé Rosé is everything you want in a dry Rosé - dangerously fresh, generously textured, a touch of spice and brimming with sophistication. Delicate fragrance of berry, watermelon with a hint of spice. A delicately structured wine with a textural dry finish. This sublime King Valley Rosé has great character, harmony and complexity, making it great for pairing with food year round especially a lovely goats cheese tart and salad, chicken terrine or barbecue prawns.

$15.99 Single Normally $17.99

3. Farm Hand Organic Rosé

Organic Rosé never tasted so good with a nose displaying great purity of fruit. Attractive pale pink in the glass with red berry vibrancy and some complexing spice notes lead to a moreish palate that delivers a dry style with an exciting texture and a clean, crisp finish. And because the fruit source is organic, you'll get a burst of fruit in every mouthful that is as mother nature intended, without any pesticides or herbicides.

$13.99 Single Normally $14.99

4. La Vieille Ferme Rosé & Rouge

Jean Pierre Perrin established La Vieille Ferme over 35 years ago, using the same grape varieties in similar proportions to those planted at the family's Chateau de Beaucastel. La Vieille Ferme is recognised for its consistently fine quality and value. The rose is Pretty soft-pink colour revealing a nose with aromas of redcurrants in jelly and cherry sorbet. Smooth fruity notes on the palate, this soft wine full of freshness shows a very nice balance.

Springtime Sparkle

1. Mumm Marlborough Brut Prestige

French Tradition, grown in New Zealand. Mumm Marlborough is a collaboration between the House of Mumm and their New Zealand Partners. It marries the best of Pinot Noir, Chardonnay and Meunier grapes with Methode Traditionnelle techniques... The result is a refined, elegant wine of exceptional quality. Aged 24 months, hand picked fruit and a tribute to NZ Pinot Noir

$29.99 Single Normally $31.99

2. Jansz NV & Rosé

Coupling Old World inspiration with New World innovation, Jansz Tasmania crafts this wine from vineyards throughout Tasmania, all of which produce high quality Chardonnay and Pinot Noir. Component wines are kept separate during winemaking to maximise blending options and the complexity of the final wine. Aromas of honeysuckle, citrus zest and fresh strawberries from the Chardonnay and Pinot Noir fruit. The finish is dry and fresh. A perfect match with natural oysters drizzled with lemon or fritto misto with lemon aioli.

$24.99 Single Normally $29.99

3. Yarra Burn Premium Cuvée

Yarra Burn Premium Cuvée Brut Sparkling fruit is cool-climate, ensuring elegance of structure and longevity. Coupled with extended maturation on lees, the wine displays great depth. A bright and lively sparkling with hints of citrus and toasty complexity. It is best enjoyed with salmon, sushi, spinach and herb risotto, and cookies.

$12.99 Single Normally $16.99

4. La Gioiosa Prosecco & Organic Prosecco

La Gioiosa represents the tradition of viticulture that belongs to the Moretti Polegato family. Very pale straw yellow colour with a fine persistent bead. Lovely fruity aroma, hints of ripe apple with a fresh and soft finish. Fantastic wine as an aperitif it also goes well with fish marinated with delicate aromatic herbs. Also in the range is the La Gioiosa Prosecco DOC Organic. Another dry soft and flavoursome style with a light fruity and well balanced finish.

Brighter Lighter Days

1. Pewsey Vale Riesling

Without doubt one of the country's most consistent and awarded Rieslings. Pale straw with green hues. Intense aromas of fine dried herbs, white flowers, lemons and lime. A long and rich palate, reminiscent of grapefruit, lime and fresh rosemary. The wine finishes with a soft natural acidity which balances the flavour and minerality. Delicious now or will reward medium to long-term cellaring. Enjoy with fresh oysters, seared scallops, salt and pepper squid, Thai beef salad, or a tomato salad with pickled walnuts and fresh basil.

$21.99 Single Normally $25.99

2. Corryton Burge Pinot Gris

Corryton Burge builds on generations of winemaking passion and is named for Corryton Park Homestead, the heart and soul of the Burge family. Sourced from the families Early Rise vineyard in the Adelaide Hills. One that consistently delivers fruit with high acid and natural flavours. The Pinot Gris has great balance of acid and length on the palate. Ripe pear and peach aromas are complimented by juicy, ripe pear flavours and a creamy mouthfeel. A fresh, vibrant wine to be shared with friends.

$19.99 Single Normally $24.99

3. Tempus Two Platinum Chardonnay, Shiraz & Pinot Noir

The Tempus Two Platinum series - modern accessible styles that over deliver on quality for the price. All fruit sourced from renowned wine regions with the Pinot Noir and Chardonnay from the Adelaide Hills and the fantastic Shiraz from McLaren Vale - full of blackberry, plum flavours and mocha like oak.

and More Sunshine

1. Squealing Pig Sauvignon Blanc

Sourced from hidden vineyards in the Awatere Valley NZ, this little pig is packed with passionfruit and herbaceous aromas on the nose. On the palate, it's all about the crisp, citrus flavours with a long finish. Best to drink quick when young and fresh. Fish tacos with plenty of salsa verde a perfect match.

$16.99 Single Normally $21.99

2. Wild Oats Sauvignon Blanc

As a feisty young sailor, Bob Oatley was given the nick name 'Wild Oats'. It is now the memorable name of the family's most popular wine range and their incredibly successful yacht Wild Oats XI - This range of contemporary wines has enjoyed remarkable success - winning multiple awards, critical acclaim, widespread distribution and a multitude of fans Australia-wide. Wild Oats Sauvignon Blanc Semillon is bright and zesty with crisp fruit and not so much as a whiff of oak. Brilliant lifestyle wine, enjoy with salads and seafood.

$14.99 Single Normally $17.99

3. Fat Bastard Chardonnay

Fat Bastard is all about big, bold, beautiful juice. That's why the fruit is sourced from the best regions around the world, renowned for the fullest flavour of each variety. You know exactly what you're getting in every bottle. The Fat Bastard Chardonnay from California USA has an opulent, rich palate of grilled pineapple, spiced butterscotch and loaded with peach and apricot. Filled with macadamia and almond meal notes, bright acidity bringing liveliness and freshness. Full bodied goodness. Gnocchi and sage burnt butter a good match.

$13.99 Single Normally $16.99

4. Young Poets Pinot Grigio

One of our best selling value ranges in store. All the varietals in the range - Chardonnay, Shiraz, Cabernet Sauvignon and Sauvignon Blanc are true to style and are wines made for enjoying now. Grant Burge a fifth-generation Barossa vigneron and winemaker has been one of the most respected and innovative forces in the Australian wine industry. The history of the Burge family and their long association with winemaking in the region can be traced back to 1855, when noted tailor John Burge immigrated to the Barossa from Hillcot, near Pewsey in Wiltshire, England. The Barossa is famous around the world for its premium wines and Grant Burge wines is one of the most recognised brands from this region. The diversity of the terroir and the region's levels, combined with its Mediterranean climate, provide the perfect environment to make a range of ultra-premium wines. Generosity is the golden thread that runs through everything Grant Burge does and delivers. His wines are generous in quality and flavour and steeped in a history. In this edition of our brochure we are pleased to showcase the wonderful depth of range and styles produced by this iconic winery.
